essays by Adorno on art and cinema available in English for the first time in Without Model. Theodor W. Adorno strikingly demonstrates the intellectual range for which he is known taking the premise of the title as his guiding principle that artistic and philosophical thought must eschew preconceptions and instead adapt itself to its time circumstances and object. Adorno presents a series of essays reflecting on culture at different levels from the details of individual products to the social conditions of their production. He shows his more nostalgic side in the childhood reminiscences of Amorbach but also his acute sociocultural analysis on the central topic of the culture industry. He criticizes attempts to maintain tradition in music and visual art arguing against a restorative approach by stressing the modernity and individuality of historical works in the context of their time. In all of these essays available for the first time in English, Adorno displays the remarkable thinking of one both steeped in tradition and dedicated to seeing beyond it.

The two-volume work Modernism has been awarded the prestigious 2008 MSA Book Prize. Modernism has constituted one of the most prominent fields of literary studies for decades while it was perhaps temporarily overshadowed by postmodernism. Recent years have seen a resurgence of interest in modernism on both sides of the Atlantic. These volumes respond to a need for a collective and multifarious view of literary modernism in various genres locations and languages asking and responding to a wealth of theoretical aesthetic and historical questions 65 scholars from several countries test the usefulness of the concept of modernism as they probe a variety of contexts from individual texts to national literatures from specific critical issues to broad cross cultural concerns while the chief emphasis of these volumes is on literary modernism literature is seen as entering into diverse cultural and social contexts these range from inter art conjunctions to philosophical environmental urban and political domains including issues of race and space gender and fashion popular culture and trauma science and exile all of which have an urgent bearing on the poetics of modernity
